COX WOULD SEEK WOMEN'S PLAN

Proposed Female Congress to Frame Social Legislation.

LEAGUE TO SHIELD MOTHERS

Governor Sees Protection of Home in World Covenant.

CLEVELAND.—(By Associated Press)—A national woman's congress to frame a program of social legislation and administration for presentation to the president and congress was advocated here Saturday by Governor Cox. Democratic presidential candidate, in addressing an audience of women.

The candidate's address preceded his political speech here and followed a morning of campaigning in which he spoke at Sandusky and Elyria en route here from Detroit. Governor Cox will remain here over Sunday and tour northern New York Monday.

Urging larger participation of women in national affairs and citing social legislation enacted during his gubernatorial administration, the governor told his women auditors at a non-partisan meeting at a local hotel that there was "much to be done for human welfare and social progress."

He also championed the league of nations as a measure to protect women and children from the horrors of war.

WOMEN'S AID SOUGHT

"From my experience in Ohio," said the governor, "you may know what to expect when I am elected president. There is much to be done for human welfare and social progress. We must stamp out diseases, oppression and ignorance and eliminate neglect. With women only at the threshold of political work in America, I cannot call upon you for congressional action, but we can work for common purpose with common counsel, and it would seem to me perfectly proper and fitting that a national meeting be held among representatives of every woman's organization in America to formulate a program for congress and the executive for social legislation and administration."

Governor Cox pledged his support to reforms contained in the San Francisco platform including federal co-operation with the states for protecting infants and to remove illiteracy. In this connection he urged establishment of a federal bureau of Americanization to educate aliens.

BUREAU OF EDUCATION

Regarding the bureau of education, Governor Cox said:

"At present the federal bureau of education is buried with a varied assortment of national business in the department of the interior. My opponent has spoken recently for a new department of public welfare under which to group certain social welfare activities.

"While I am in hearty accord with the idea of house cleaning our government departments and sorting out the human from the technical problems, I feel we should look forward to giving education and health equal consideration with labor, instead of lumping all social questions again in another grab bag, ill-defined department."

In the last congress, Governor Cox charged, "baby's bill" providing for maternity and infant care "waited in vain" while reactionary leaders spent their time "scrapping" the league of nations.

"I am in favor of going into the League," he said, "not alone to keep your children from the terrible experiences of war, but to enrich their lives by turning our national resources from battleships and armaments into school houses, playgrounds, work for health, child hygiene and child happiness."

"Not to have given the right of suffrage to the women of America in this year when the greatest of all issues is before the people would have been little short of a calamity. Theirs was the greater suffering in war and theirs the greater understanding of the lesson of the war. If we are to be deprived of world peace as a result of the action of our own country under leadership of a partisan conspiracy it is woman's right that her voice be heard. If the women of America may express their will I have no doubt of the result."

NO "LONELY GIRLS"

IN KANSAS CITY, MO.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Like the rich man in the Bible who made a wedding feast and found himself without guests, young women of the Linwood Presbyterian Church who have announced a party for lonely girls of the city waited in vain for visitors to put in an appearance. Finally, the hostesses themselves had to play the games they had prepared and dispose of the refreshments.

However, the "lonely girl" parties will be continued. One will be held each month and for the next one each girl of the church has pledged herself to bring a guest.

CHINESE GOD STOLEN
LONDON—Police are faced with a rare mystery in the stealing from a dealer's shop of a Chinese god nearly 1,700 years old. It was valued at $400. Much more valuable things were untouched. The thief is believed to have been a devotee of the ancient god.

HIS NAME'S ON ALL U. S. PAPER MONEY, SO PEOPLE BLAME HIM FOR SHORTAGE

John Burke at his desk.

John Burke, treasurer of the United States, one of the most advertised men in the country. Look on a dollar bill—if you have one left—you'll see his name. His signature is on every piece of paper money issued by the U. S. As a result of this he is swamped with letters from persons who have lost their "rolls" asking for advice as to how to recover them. One man, who had read the per capita wealth of the country, wrote to Burke asking for his share.

HARDING "FLOPS" AGAIN, COX SAYS

Twelfth Somersault Made on League, Governor Asserts.

CLEVELAND.—(By Associated Press)—Governor Cox Saturday hailed as "another somersault" the league of nations speech of Senator Harding, his republican opponent, Friday at Indianapolis.

The senatorial candidate has made 12 definite, distinct flops on the league since last August, in three months," said the Democratic presidential candidate, in addressing audiences at Fremont, Ohio, and here on his way to Cleveland.

"How many," Gov. Cox continued, "could he be expected to take between Nov. 2 and March 4?"

"The senator's Indianapolis speech means that Harding and his advisers have been caught in No Man's Land, and they see they can't get back by Nov. 2. This ought to be a lesson to political parties for years to come.

It pays to square with the people. This thing of trying to wiggle into the presidency will not do."

Among questions asked Gov. Cox at Fremont, where a large early morning crowd with a brass band cheered him, was his view on the Japanese immigration question.

Replying that it was an "internal" question and that one of the Hitchcock reservations would take domestic questions from the league's jurisdiction, Governor Cox added:

"It might say, furthermore, that this is a white man's country and the yellow man can't run it." If the yellow men want to come here they must subscribe to the conditions that we impose."

A woman at Fremont asked the joint debate with Senator Harding was refused and the governor replied:

"For the same reason that a man with no arms would refuse a challenge for a fight. They don't dare present their case."

Fremont was visited by the governor Saturday instead of Sandusky, where his original itinerary called for a speech. He spoke here to a large crowd on the courthouse lawn.

LABOR MEN ELECT

More Again Heads the Ohio Federation—Other Officers Chosen.

DAYTON—(By United Press)—"This has been our most successful convention," said John B. Moore, Columbus, re-elected president of the Ohio State Federation of Labor Saturday, as delegates began leaving following close of the federation's 37th annual convention.

Besides Moore, the following vice presidents who also are executive board members, were re-elected:

John J. Quinlan, Toledo; Grant Fink, Dayton; John G. Owans, Cleveland; Arthur Muhleman, Coshocton; W. M. Morgan, Newark; Albert Haubrock, Cincinnati.

Thomas J. Donnelly, Cincinnati, was re-elected secretary-treasurer and his salary increased to $4,500 from $3,600 a year.

Ode J. Grubb, Youngstown, was elected fifth vice-president to succeed John J. Graney of that city. O. B. Chapman, Dayton, was elected delegate to American Federation of Labor.

Hamilton was chosen for the 1921 convention city.

U. S. MARINE BECOMES WORLD'S CHAMPION IN WAFFLE-EATING CONTEST

NEW YORK—The title of champion waffle-eater of the world Saturday was claimed by Private Paul Francis Jones of the United States marine corps. He established his claim Friday night by eating 26 1/2 of the 28 waffles prepared for him in thirty minutes flat. In a contest with a representative of the army at the Grand Central palace.

A large, mouth-watering audience witnessed the feat, for which Private Jones rehearsed in the afternoon by eating a porterhouse steak smothered in onions, french fried potatoes, asparagus, doughnuts and coffee.

THEATERS HIT BY PRICE SLUMP

Many Start Rate Cut; Several Forced to Close.

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press)—The national economy wave that has started prices on the downward trend in many industries, now has struck the theater, and the "S. O. S." sign—a fixture in most theatres since the armistice—has been relegated to the heap of unused props, along with the scenery and stage effects of a growing list of failures, theatrical producers said Saturday.

"The end of the unprecedented boom in the theater appears to have set in," said Sam H. Harris, president of the Producing Managers association.

Of 44 attractions now playing in the first class theaters here, sixteen, it was learned Saturday, have been compelled to resort to cut rate ticket agencies in an effort to dispose of seats, while the number of failures is reported to be considerably in excess of those last year.

Conditions on the road were declared to be even worse, 28 road shows having closed during the last week. Losses to producers in recent weeks were estimated at $1,200,000.

Closer spending on the part of the public, together with increased rail road rates which makes the transportation of road companies more expensive, were given as the principal cause of the theatrical slump.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES GIVEN CHANCE OF PROMOTION

WASHINGTON—Provision for filling postmasterships in first, second and third class offices thru promotion is made in executive order announced Saturday by the civil service commission.

The post office department under the order will be permitted to make a nomination for vacancy from available employees and if the nominee meets the minimum requirements prescribed for the office his name will be submitted to the president for appointment.

Previous orders provided no preference for postal service employees over other persons.

VIOLATES HIS PAROLE TO VISIT CHILDREN

LINCOLN, Neb.—Refused permission to visit his children living at Wayne, Neb., O. N. Eicher, a paroled prisoner in the state penitentiary, violated his parole and visited his family, but voluntarily returned to prison recently. Eicher was convicted for an assault upon his wife following a quarrel. He was paroled to a farmer near Lincoln and broke his parole when denied the privilege of visiting his children.

BURGLAR SHOT

TOLEDO—An unidentified burglar, apparently about 23 years old, died in a hospital here Saturday after being shot earlier in the morning by police who surrounded a bicycle shop reported being robbed.

Two bullets were fired into the man's head after he disregarded two shots which officers fired into the air.

G. O. P. STIRS RACE HATRED, CHARGE

Plays to Foreign Susceptibilities, Secretary Colby Says.

'PRO-GERMANS FOR HARDING'

State Department Chief Speaks at Chicago Luncheon.

CHICAGO—(By Associated Press)—Speaking at a luncheon at the Iroquois club here Saturday, Secretary of State Colby charged the Republican party with "the methodical effort to play upon the susceptibilities of every racial group in America," and characterized it as "one of the most sinister features of the Republican campaign."

He accused the Republicans of transporting to America and injecting into purely domestic issues factional strife and prejudices of Europe, and of taking advantage of these susceptibilities in immigrants before they have had time to learn America and become Americans.

Mentioning the Germans, he said, by way of illustration, that any organized general support from the German element in America is an expression of either disappointment or resentment at the course of the United States in the war.

HARDING SUPPORTERS

"There is not a journal published in German," the speaker charged, "or a newspaper that during the war enjoyed prominence as pro-German in its leanings that is not supporting Harding and the Republican ticket today. There is not a German suspect or a German sympathizer who was the subject of prudent attention on the part of the United States authorities during the war who is not supporting the Republican ticket; and there is only one exception for this, but they hope, the president who pulled the mark aside from Prussian arrogance. They hate the party under whose direction and leadership the victorious war was fought, in which America contributed the decisive blows that crushed and humbled Germany to free institutions."

What he said of the German element, Secretary Colby explained, applied to every other racial group in America that thinks more of gratifying the racial antithesis than it does of serving America.

GREETING TO ALIENS

"America is not interested primarily in the rivalries between the Albanians and the Jugo-Slavs, or in their contentions over a boundary," the speaker continued. "The pretensions of Bulgaria as against the Greeks have no place in this campaign. The Democratic party is not seeking the support of any of these racial groups among our population on the basis of their prejudices or susceptibilities as aliens."

HALTED AT GATE

All these, with the exception of Moore, said they were willing to say under oath that no morsel of food had been taken by MacSwiney. Moore refused to comment.

A heavy police guard hails newspaper men at the gate of Brixton prison. I was unable to eажое them into allowing me a glimpse of the man suffering from lung trouble who could have lasted beyond all authentic records with nothing more than a water, hot water, and salt solutions aside from the dim prison physicians and a half dozen nurses, only ten persons are known to have seen MacSwiney. Five of these were relatives and the other were Dr. Norman Moore, eminent physician, who examined the prisoner at the request of relatives, Art O'Brien, the bishop of Cork, Archbishop Mannix, and Father Fogarty.

POOR GRADE OF COAL

Major Burkhardt made an examination of one of the cars which was refused by Wood, and declared Kentucky coal have been so poor that it has been necessary to return the two cars within the past week and that a number of others have been accepted which were not suitable for domestic consumption. He declared the matter had reached the point where a thorough investigation should be made and a protest filed with the interstate commerce commission by city officials and the Lime Chamber of Commerce.

DEALER COMPLAINS

Cliff Wood, of the Cliff Wood Coal and Supply Co., declared shipments of both Ohio and Kentucky coal have been so poor that it has been necessary to return the two cars within the past week and that a number of others have been accepted which were not suitable for domestic consumption. He declared the matter had reached the point where a thorough investigation should be made and a protest filed with the interstate commerce commission by city officials and the Lime Chamber of Commerce.

POOR GRADE OF COAL

Major Burkhardt made an examination of one of the cars which was refused by Wood, and declared he found it to be entirely unfit for domestic use. "The car was filled with a mixture of coal, slate and mud, and looked as tho it had been taken from under water with a steam shovel," the Mayor declared.

He said a few chunks of good coal were piled around the door of the box car in which it was shipped and on top of the coal.

Major Burkhardt had not decided Saturday what action to take, but he believed a protest should be made unless conditions are improved.

HOUDINI PRICE UP

He declared the attitude of coal dealers of late has been indicative that an attempt is being made to hold the price of coal up. He said he was visited by two salesmen Friday who declared they had no coal to sell from the mines they represented, but might be able to find some on two. This attitude has become so general he said that he believes it to be merely an effort to indicate a coal scarcity in order to keep the price up.

WILL HIT SHIPS

On the marine side, ocean liners have been instructed to obtain bunker coal abroad as much as possible. Report from Liverpool state that while this may cease the situation, the hold-up of shipping will none the less be serious, and much disquietude is felt there.

Representatives of the United States Shipping Board stated Saturday morning they had received assurances from the British ministry of shipping which gave the board reason for confidence that none of the American steamers would be tied up.

INQUIRIES AT THE OFFICE

Investigations at the office of the main trans-Atlantic passenger lines Saturday morning elicited the statement that there was no indication at present of restrictions or alteration of the advertised sailings. The Cunard line stated that the Mauretania will sail Saturday and there are no indications that the future service of the line will be interrupted.

Premier Lloyd George Saturday addressed a message to the nation with regard to the strike. He said the government had done everything possible to avert the calamity but that the miners, rejecting all offers, now were trying to gain their ends by force. The notion, he declared, would "resist such an attack with all its strength and there can be no doubt as to the issue."

WOMAN BANDIT HOLDS UP AND ROBS MOTEL

TOLEDO—Police are searching for a woman bandit who Friday night held up a motoring party at Minneetown, near here, and forced the occupant of the car to give up $90. The woman was in an automobile driven by a man. The motoring party was stopped when the tires were punctured by bullets.

OWNERS LIBERTY BONDS FLEECED

Swindlers Busy With Get-Rich-Quick Schemes

SECRET SERVICE IS ACTIVE

"Money Mania" Following War Aids in Frauds

WASHINGTON.—"War prosperity opened the gate," swindlers, and in get-rich-quick schemes of varied kind, Americans have been fleeced of hard-earned cash running high into the millions, with the heaviest losses falling upon that hard-working element least able to sustain them.

Chief W. H. Moran, o. the United States Secret Service, has thus briefly diagnosed the "money mania" of get-rich-quick schemers. Chief Moran said that the doings of adventurers of the type of Charles Ponzi, of Boston, and other "likers," who have operated upon less expensive and slightly different lines, find as a prompting motive the desire to "get something for nothing."

PONZI IMITATORS

"With the Ponzi case I have not had anything to do, as it is largely a matter for the Post Office Department to handle, so far as it affects violation of postal regulations. Having had no official connection with the case, I would not discuss his methods. But with the operations of get-rich-quick promoters operating along slightly different lines, I am perfectly familiar."

"The flood of money turned loose by the war seemed to spur the criminally inclined to efforts upon a gigantic scale. Operations of the unscrupulous, particularly traffickers in Government bonds and War Savings Stamps, if allowed to go on unchecked, would have brought serious financial embarrassments to the Government," the Secret Service chief said.

LIBERTY BOND FRAUDS

Swindlers fleeced innocent victims of millions of dollars thru dishonesty in Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps and certificates, before Government agents curbed their operations." Mr. Moran declared. "The traffic has not been entirely stamped out, but our forces have reduced it to a minimum by eliminating some of the 'markets' for the sale of such securities."

"One of the most disreputable types of promoters includes the oil or mining stock swindlers who exchange 'stock' not worth the paper on which it is written and take in return Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps or certificates. Such unscrupulous persons have taken the entire country for their field of operations and some o. the promoters almost defy detection, so smooth are the methods employed."

"We are gradually weeding out these kinds of promoters in an endeavor to protect Liberty Bond investors."

"Other swindlers are purchasing Liberty Bonds from their owners at prices far below their actual worth. I have discovered that these swindlers get the attention of bond owners thru advertisements calculated to make the suspecting bo. hold believe that the highest market price can be secured for his bond thru the agency of the advertiser. Such schemes never pay the highest market price. Invariably the bond owner is swindled."

60-YEAR-OLD INVALID TRAVELS 500 MILES IN WHEEL CHAIR ON ROAD

SAN FRANCISCO—Five hundred miles in a wheel chair.

This is the road record of B. E. Davis, an invalid, aged sixty, who left Los Angeles a month ago and propelled his chair by hand to San Francisco. He made the trip as a demonstration of the good roads of California.

"I got a lift once, invalid and invalid chair, from a passing machine," said Davis. "The rest of the way I propelled myself with the two cranks on the wheel chair. I can travel about six hours before my arms give out and I averaged sixteen miles a day on my trip."

Davis traveled light with a toothbrush and a sack of tobacco as his luggage. He declared that he bought what clothes he needed and dispensed with the extra baggage."

WOMEN TAKE PLACES ON ENGLISH JURIES

BRISTOL—Women jurors have just served at the Bristol Sessions for the first time.

Counsel prosecuting in the first case paid them a warm tribute. "I congratulate you on at last taking your proper place in the judicial of the country," he said. "And I congratulate the cause of justice itself."

The women jurors, however, were not quite certain how much congratulation they required. One of them was apprehensive about three children who she had to leave unattended, and another had been obliged to close her shop to serve on the jury.

This was probably their first taste of the bitter which has to be swallowed with the sweets of sex-equality.

AMPLIFIES SOUND A MILLION TIMES

NEW YORK—Imagine some politician returning from abroad talking to assemblages on ten halls ten cities at the same time, from a ship 600 miles out at sea.

This phenomenon may be accomplished with the aid of the new device that amplifies tones a million times. It recently was vividly demonstrated to passengers on board the Cunard liner Imperator, as that ship was leaving New York on her last transatlantic journey. The incident marked a new era in the history of voice transmission, engineers say.

The phenomenon never payed off.

Passengers on the ship's deck were astounded when suddenly out of the air came a human voice, as clear and intelligible as if spoken by a person three feet away.

"Steamship Imperator," show Posing Mr. Jones and Mr. Mathes, said the voice.

The call was repeated three times Then came,

"Bon voyage. We hope you have a pleasant trip across."

The listeners were amazed. That is, all except Mr. Jones and Mr. Mathes, electrical engineers, who happened to know what it was and whence it came. But they did not offer an explanation until after the voice began again.

WOMEN FIRST SMOKED IN RUSSIAN COURT

PARIS—The cigarette-smoking habit among women was brought into civilized countries by ladies of the court of the former Russian Czar, according to Edouard Ponti, a French writer. The wives of European diplomats at Potemkin returned home and launched a fight against while their sisters in the United States were using up cigarettes.

Incidentally, the eligible habit dealt a death blow to many manufacturers of fans, women finding that they could not well manipulate a fan and smoke at the same time.

BALANCING STUNT COST HIM HIS LIFE

ST. LOUIS Mo.—An attempt to perform a stirring new balancing stunt cost William L. Beckenbach his life last night.

He had attempted to balance himself in the air upon a wire hand on a large screwdriver stuck in the ground. The wire was broken, a piece of steel piercing his nostril.

He died later of meningitis attributed to the accident.

"My Sentiments Too; We'll Keep The Faith!"

GERMANY AND THE LEAGUE

WE are experiencing the peculiar and unexpected and inexplicable situation of witnessing the opposition of German-American citizens, in some communities at least, to the League of Nations.

This is rendered more than ever difficult of understanding when one stops to consider that the people of Germany recognize that the League of Nations is the salvation of that country, as well as all other nations of Europe that participated in the world war. Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to America when the war began in Europe, has said, not only once, but repeatedly, that the salvation of Germany is the League of Nations.

Maximilian Harden, world famous German authority, in an interview in the New York World, in June, 1919, makes the following statements, which should be proof sufficient to any German-American that in opposing the League of Nations he is running counter to the interests of Germany, as well as all other nations of the earth, and is embracing a policy that will stifle the ability of his or her friends and relatives in the Fatherland to assist in working out the national destiny and re-establishing that nation among the nations of the earth, free from the danger of bolshevism and the inevitable chaos that assuredly follows when a war swept nation is not afforded or is denied the opportunity to carry out a reconstruction program, aided by other nations, whether they were theretofore friend or foe.

But read Harden's estimate of the League of Nations and what it means to Germany. Harden says:

"The proclaiming of a great thought, promising far reaching results, has no right to shrink from hindrance and to drop his thought like a foundling. The President (Wilson) had to remain and see all manner of weeds springing up, amid soul torments and suffering, in order to bring the harvest from the seed of his spirit into the granary."

"The agency thru which this harvest will be transformed into food for humanity can be only the League of Nations.

"WHOEVER DOES NOT WANT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS DESIRES THAT HUMANITY STARVE."

"But, whoever fights against the creation of a League of Nations, thrusts it aside as a Wilson Utopia and hinders the world change which alone can redeem the atrocities of war. An American opponent can only expose himself to reproach for having squandered the blood of his countrymen for an old-style peace, purchaseable with money; and he paves the way for a Lenin Utopia because belief in human progress and in the union of humanity seems Utopia to him.

"If the classes with property rights do not succeed in creating a super-national tribunal, whose task will be the moral regeneration of the lives of the nations and the socialization of all countries, then the decaying citadel of capital will not long withstand the fury of the masses."

"If the League of Nations were only a hope, even then it would be criminal to nip it in the bud before it could prove that its fruit could ripen.

"WOE TO THOSE WHO WOULD RECOME RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEFEAT OF THE LEAGUE PROJECT."

"Despite all the harshness of the proposed treaty, I would sign it with calm conscience, for the preliminary peace thus assured would buy for Germany a way into the League of Nations and into the world's confidence, not by any visible change of character, but in token of the sufferings endured by the ineradicable germ of good will in the German people.

"Such a peace would provide the means for quiet discussion at all times among sensible people who do not wish anything unreasonable and who would impose no intolerable burden upon any nation; discussion among people who know by experience that harsh pressure and disregard of right deprave men and nations, even worse than excessive good fortune, which often breeds vain arrogance.

"I believe in the purification of humanity thru the experiences of the war and in the efficacy of the only available means for good. Therefore, I believe in the League of Nations and that Woodrow Wilson was predestined to create and establish it."

ELECTING A CONGRESSMAN

VOTERS of Lima and Allen-co who believe in the principles enunciated by the Democratic party and who are of the opinion that America should enter the League of Nations for the future safety of the United States and as a long step toward prevention of war, should not overlook the very important fact, to bring about such a happy and much to be desired state, it is necessary that Democratic Congressmen and United States Senators be elected, as Congress and the Senate will either adopt or reject the League.

Congressman B. F. Welty is up for reelection. He favors the League of Nations and will vote for it. His opponent in the 4th congressional district is John L. Cable, at present the Prosecuting Attorney of Allen-co. That Cable, if elected, would vote against the ratification of the Peace Treaty and the League is evidenced by his public utterances against the greatest document that was ever written since the Declaration of Independence.

Mr. Cable is probably a well-intentioned young man, smiling and jovial, a Hale fellow well met, but his only interest now is being elected to congress. He isn't telling you what he'll do after he gets there; all he seeks now is your vote. In congress he'll vote with his party, no doubt, and his party is against the League of Nations and for a separate peace with Germany, the G. O. P. turning its back on the things the American soldier boys fought for, suffered for and died for.

If you are in favor of the League of Nations and want America to keep faith with those who died, voting for James M. Cox for President isn't sufficient! Without friends of the Covenant in congress and senate, action as you desire it will be impossible. A vote for B. F. Welty for Congressman is a vote for the Peace Treaty and the Covenant of the League of Nations. John L. Cable is speaking and working against it. Don't make the mistake of expecting him to favor it should he be elected.

Play safe; vote for Welty and Julian!
